

Available for 2012-2013 School Year No Bullies, Please!

Don't Get Middle Schooled

Animation/Live-action Shorts Program,
Grades 6-8 (Ages 11-14)

All world language films will be screened with English subtitles.
90-minute program includes media education

Starting a new school scares Rosa, who lets her funky imagination run wild as she hurls the hassles: terrifying teachers, spooky laboratories, mean girls, and an annoying pimple threaten to ruin her first day. Best friends from last year have taken a different direction over the summer and it might not be a good decision to be friends any longer – especially when they pick on a new girl. Decisions and social pressures – so much to do on the first day! Then, 12-year-olds Harry, Liam, and Ricky sort out their own “new boy” issues and learn to rely on each others’ strengths and not rely on the obvious choices. When issues present themselves – don’t get middle schooled!

Pictured: “How to Survive ...?”

Films Screened:

- Snack Attack
- Middle School Dance
- Mobile
- How to Survive ...?
- The Turtle and the Nightingale

Films from Germany, the Netherlands, and the US!

Denotes some mature themes in this program

Denotes violence for this program

Pictured: “The Turtle and the Nightingale”

$6 per student, chaperones free!

Screenings held at Facets Multi-Media:
1517 W. Fullerton Ave. Chicago, IL 60614

*Program also available for in-school screenings.
Additional charges apply.*

Price includes curriculum (received in advance) and media educator led discussion.

Contact: Group Sales Coordinator
(773) 281-9075 x3009 or fldtrips@facets.org

For additional details, visit www.facets.org/kids