No Bullies, Please!

It Starts in the Sandbox

Animated/Live-action Shorts Program,
Grades PreK & Kindergarten (Ages 2-5)

70-minute program includes media education

Empathy is easy! Learning to share and to include others is the first step. The characters in these short films see we are all different, but find a way to all get along. Toad and Bunny's visitor has an annoying nocturnal sleep-over habit – can they accommodate their lifestyle differences? Molly the Monster loves her new toy, but doesn't remember to include her pal when playing. Remembering to respect his feelings and to allow him in on the fun is the best game of all. The characters in these fun films make new friends and keep the old – one is silver and the other gold!
